

Herter to Offer Soviets 'New Plan' for Berlin

ONLY THE ADDRESS has changed—the number's still the same. The telephone number of the new Palm Springs police building, that is, Police Clerk Michele Ailor, and her canine pal, Honey, are making a trial run on the new police switchboard—a communications unit which ties in telephone lines for all city offices. The police department will officially change its address Sunday, but Police Chief Kettmann reminded resort residents that the 'phone number's still the same. Honey, incidentally, is the new mascot for the new police building. Her owner is Marian Hamilton, switchboard operator. (Desert Sun Photo).

HERTER TO OFFER NEW BERLIN BID

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Secretary of State Christian A. Herter leaves for Geneva today carrying a Western proposal on Berlin that offers no major concessions to Russia but keeps the way open for further bargaining.

The new plan was reported to spell out the final steps the Soviet Union must take if it expects a heads-of-government summit meeting later this year.

HERTER WILL MEET with the British, French and West German foreign ministers Sunday afternoon in Geneva to work out final details of the Western strategy. The deadlocked Big Four foreign ministers conference resumes Monday after a three-week "cooling off" recess.

Herter discussed the proposal with President Eisenhower for 70 minutes Friday night. Earlier in the day he talked with Vice President Richard M. Nixon, British board's Aug. 5 meeting.

Palm Springs Board of Education members last night set Oct. 13 as the date for their new bond election.

HONOLULU CUTIE, CATHOLIC CHURCH IN BEAUTY TIFF

HONOLULU (UPI) — Another battle between a beauty and a bishop shaped up in Hawaii today after Judges picked curvaceous—and Catholic—Pat visser as the 50th state's entrant in the Miss Universe Contest.

The Most Reverend James J. Sweeney, Bishop of Honolulu, was put out of town until this weekend, when he returns from a pilgrimage to Rome. Meanwhile, Roman Catholic Auxiliary Bishop John J. Scanlan acknowledged that the church generally opposes "any public exhibition of a person in a bathing suit."

"My church has stood for what is morally right for 1959 years in spite of the changing morals of many people in many countries," the girl said.

Pat is the second Roman Catholic entered in the Miss Universe contest to run into opposition from the church.

No Apartment Encroaching On Residential Areas--City

City Council members this week indirectly served notice to apartment developers that they stand little chance of encroaching on residential areas, at least under present city zoning standards.

That was the essence of the council's decision to reject developer George Goldberg's application for a zone change for property fronting on a residential tract.

COUNCIL MEMBERS voted unanimously to deny "without prejudice" Goldberg's application for R-3 zoning, permitting construction of a new apartment project, on property fronting on East Ramon Road, running east from Compadre Road.

However, the council indicated that Goldberg's case may be reconsidered when Planning Consultant Simon Eisner's "City Master Plan" is completed.

It was explained that the plan may have provision for zoning changes that may prove favorable to Goldberg, and similar apartment developers.

GOLDBERG HAD applied for the zone change, on property fronting Ramon Rise Estates, on the grounds that a similar change was granted an apartment builder on the opposite (north) side of Ramon Road, a short distance east of Goldberg's land.

The developer's case was pleaded by Attorney Jim Schlecht in a public hearing before the council Wednesday night. Schlecht used the previously granted zone change as his principal argument, adding that out of 60 home owners in Ramon Rise, "there has been no wholesale protest."

ONE PROPERTY owner, however, did protest. He was Michael

Chaite, of 560 Beverly Drive, who cautioned the council that to "compound the error" of previous zoning alterations "might ring the whole area with apartment buildings."

Councilman Ted McKinney recalled how the council had denied a request "under similar circumstances" and suggested that the application be denied "until we see the Master Plan."

HE INDICATED that all such requests for this type of rezoning should meet a similar fate until the Master Plan is adopted as a firm blueprint of future zoning and city expansion.

The council unanimously approved McKinney's suggestion, which evolved into a formal motion, although Mayor Frank Bogert queried: "Is it fair to delay a zone change until we pass a law?"

First College Site Choice Not for Sale

Ray Ryan Gives His Decision To Committee

PALM DESERT — Negotiations for the purchase of a junior college site collapsed yesterday as Oilman Ray Ryan refused to sell his Indian Wells Cove property "for any price."

College President Dr. Roy McCall said Ryan told the Coachella Valley Junior College District's site committee that he's "not interested in selling."

DR. McCALL SAID the property, located south of Highway 111 just east of Palm Desert, was marked as a potential college site several months ago at price of $300,000.

"That was the price quoted by Mr. Ryan's partner (Barney Hinkle) as a starting point for negotiations some months ago," McCall reported. "Of course, we would not go above that figure, but Ryan indicated he would not sell at any price."

McCall said that the property, near the plush Indian Wells Country Club, was regarded as the best choice of sites by the state division of school housing planning, the college Board of Trustees and the architects assigned to draft plans for college buildings.

WELL ON THE WAY towards completion are the foundation and basement facilities for the new, $1 million Palm Springs Spa bathhouse on North Indian Avenue. Architects Don Wexler, Richard Harrison and Bill Cody said the bathhouse is scheduled for completion by November. The plush health center is the first phase in a major, multi-million-dollar resort development projected by Samuel Banowitz and Associates. Eventually, the developer envisions a major resort hotel and retail shop buildings for the site. The development is under construction on land provided by the first long-term leasing of Indian-owned property. Joe Everston, co-owner and future manager of the Spa, said the buildings cost will exceed $800,000. Furnishings and supplemental equipment should bring the cost to $1 million. (Desert Sun Photo).

Junior College Sets Oct. 13 for Bond Election

PALM DESERT — Coachella Valley Junior College District trustees have marked Oct. 13 as the date for their first bond election.

College President Roy McCall said the board set the date but hasn't added up the amount of the district's proposed first bond issue.

Dr. McCall explained that architect's are still planning the first building that will go up on the yet unselected college site.

"We hope to hold our bond election in conjunction with the Palm Springs Unified School District," McCall said.

The Palm Springs district is expected to ask the voters to approve a new bond issue in the early fall. No figure has been set for the Palm Springs election.

HOFFA MUST FACE NEW SENATE QUIZ

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Senate Rackets Committee will confront Teamster President James R. Hoffa Monday with a new range of charges of wrongdoing by himself and his union aides.

Groundwork for Hoffa's appearance was completed Friday with testimony designed to show abuse of workmen by Teamster and management officials.

A DASH OF MYSTERY was added when Louis Goldblatt, secretary-treasurer of the West Coast Longshoremen and Warehousemen's Union, refused to say whether he "made any approach" for removal of an anti-Hoffa monitor of the Teamsters.

Goldblatt invoked the Fifth Amendment's protection against possible self-incrimination when asked if he had tried directly or indirectly to get Godfrey Schmidt to resign from the three-member board appointed by a federal court to ride herd over Hoffa.

THE CALIFORNIA labor leader told of several "understandings" his union had reached with the Teamsters. But none seemed within the scope of Hoffa's proposal to combine their forces into one powerful transportation union.

Friday's testimony also disclosed that Wally Butler, head of a Detroit branch of the Retail, Wholesale, Department Store Union, said he refused an indirect offer of $50,000 and a direct offer of a "blank check" from two pro-Hoffa Teamster leaders if he would turn over his 350 members to their locals.

Kozlov and his party were to tour the world's first commercial atomic power station at Shippingport, Pa., this morning under the personal supervision of Rear Adm. Hyman G. Rickover, "Father" of the atomic submarine.

Kozlov cancelled his afternoon schedule that had included attendance at the Pittsburgh Pirates-Chicago Cubs baseball game, and decided instead to fly back to New York after touring the power station. He plans to leave for home Monday in the big TU104 jet plane that brought him to the United States.

The fire destroyed 28 homes in the fashionable residential area Friday.

Fire authorities added, however, that the woman's story "is only one of many stories and reports we are checking out."

At the same time, chief Pete Thompson officially denied that the fire department had issued any statements that the brush fire was set by an arsonist.

SHARK ROUTS 300 WITH FORAY INTO CORONADO SURE

CORONADO (UPI) — Hundreds of swimmers were ordered out of the ocean Friday when a shark estimated at from 12 to 15 feet in length, was sighted near Eardman Beach.

Police said a Navy helicopter spotted the large shark lurking about 100 yards from shore. It was within 50 yards of some swimmers. About 300 bathers were ordered out of the surf by lifeguards, but they later returned to the water after the shark disappeared.

Union Rejects Bid

No 'Break' Seen In Steel Impasse

No 'Break' Seen In Steel Impasse

NEW YORK (UPI) — Industry's chief negotiator R. Conrad Cooper today announced that "we see no possibility of an agreement" which would avert a nationwide steel strike at Tuesday midnight.

Cooper, looking solemn, made this statement to a large number of newsmen following a one hour conference with union negotiators this morning.

"WE HAVE AGAIN proposed an extension of the contract to enable further negotiations and prevent a disruption of production," Cooper said.

Today's negotiating session had begun in an atmosphere slightly more optimistic than previously. But shortly before noon Cooper told reporters:

"THE UNION HAS rejected industry's proposal." He did not state what that proposal was. Heretofore the industry had been standing by its policy calling upon the union to accept a one year wage freeze.

The industry had contended it would resist any effort to increase total employment costs which it contended would be inflationary.

Board Cuts $300,000 From Budget

'Lack of Realism' In Past to Prove Costly for Schools

Financially hamstringing "the improvidence of past boards and administrations," the Board of Education last night reluctantly elevated the school tax to its legal maximum rate and simultaneously slashed almost $300,000 from its new school budget.

Board members authorized a tax of $1.65—for the biggest tax hike in district history — and ruefully adopted a publication budget of $2,377,167. August 5 is the public hearing date for the budget.

THE BOARD unanimously blamed "unrealistic tax rates" of the past for creating the "disgraceful financial situation" which forced them to enact a 36-cent tax increase and approve a budget that "doesn't even meet minimal requirements."

"We must now face up to a history of improvidence in past boards and administrations," said Board Member Everett Ball. "This is a disgraceful situation."

Schools Supt. Dwight Twist explained that the school district can no longer use its cash reserves to balance its budget because "we've been living on our savings for the past five years."

"LAST YEAR'S tax rate and budget were not realistic," Dr. Twist told the board. "The tax rate declined (to $1.29 from $1.33) while school costs went up."

In addition, the board had planned to finance a "minimal" budget of $2,665,393 with a maximum tax raise of 23 cents, based on hopes of a $120 million assessed

ONE FOR THE BOOK: CITIZENS DEMAND TAX RATE INCREASE

For the first time in the history of this—and probably any other school district—a group of tax-paying citizens last night appealed for an increased tax rate.

A letter addressed to the Board of Education and signed by 82 property owners endorsed "a substantial raise in our school tax rate—even to the legal maximum of $1.65."

"As parents and home owners in Palm Springs," the letter read, in part, "we will (also) support a new bond issue if these means are necessary to provide adequate classroom space and sufficient instructional services and materials."

The letter was regarded with unabashed awe by Schools Supt. Dwight Twist, who commented: "To my knowledge, this is the first time this has ever happened in this or any other school district."

Today's negotiating session had begun in an atmosphere slightly more optimistic than previously. But shortly before noon Cooper told reporters:

MRS. M.
DEAR MRS. M.: By all means, have a friendly little chat with his wife. Use diplomacy and tact and I'll bet she covers the situation before the hedge grows.

DEAR ABBY: Will you please tell me what I can do to keep my children from fighting all the time They are 8, 6, 5 and 4. They get up at 6:30 a.m. and they are fighting by 6:35. They tease and pester each other until bedtime. I have my work to do and can't keep running to settle their

DISGUSTED
DEAR ABBY: In reply to the milkman's wife who was jealous because her husband had the key to a lady's apartment so he could put her milk in her refrigerator. I was a milkman for 26 years with a big company and there wasn't a driver there who didn't have at least one key. I knew one who had 16 keys! We delivered from 2 a.m. till 7 a.m. and here are a few things we did in the line of duty:
Heat baby's bottle. Carry out the wash. Put up the clothes line. Empty the trash. I even had to hook up a lady's dress in back once because she couldn't reach it and her husband was out of town.
So, don't let a little thing like having the key to another apartment worry you.

Supervisors To Discuss 8 Desert Items

Date Palm Drive Extension Heads County's Agenda

Eight items of interest to desert area residents were listed today on the Monday meeting agenda posted for the Riverside County Board of Supervisors.

Desert matters scheduled for supervisory consideration include planning commission recommendation on a request for extension of Date Palm Drive to Highway 99; resolution of the City of Indio for extension of agreement of services of the health officer.

Resolution of the City of Palm Springs requesting an amendment to Section 1463 of the penal code; resolution of the state highway commission adopting a freeway route between Indio and Cactus City.

Public hearing on adoption of Building Code Ordinance 457; recommendation to renew leases of use of various dump sites; request of road camp superintendent to station prisoners in mountains on holidays and weekends.

County Pay Hikes to Continue To Be Automatic

By a three - to - two decision of the Board of Supervisors this week, the five-step salary plan by which county employees are automatically given step raises in accordance with the length of time they have been employed will continue to be automatic.

Supervisor George Berkeley and Supervisor Paul Anderson refused to vote to rescind the previous board action by which department heads were to be required to issue reports on forms proposed by Personnel Director Donald Spencer indicating whether employees merit the scheduled pay raise, but the other three supervisors supported an appeal by 12 of the county's approximately 30 department heads.

Some of the other department heads expressed approval of Spencer's proposal, some stated that they had "no objection" to it, and others refused to comment.

Record of survey requested by Steve Honig for property west of the Dillon Road - Thousand Palms Canyon intersection, Desert Crest area; survey requested by W. M. Balsz, for property adjoining the west bank of the Colorado River, in the Palo Verde Valley area.

GROUND BREAKING ACCORDING to the plans is being accomplished above by Gail Thompson, owner of the two-story steel and concrete store and office building now under construction in the 100 block of East Palm Canyon Drive, and Arthur Press of Press Construction Co., builder. At right with plans is designer John Moyer, A.I.B.D. Desert Sun Photo.

GAYLE BUILDING NOW UNDER WAY

The Southward surge of Palm Springs' downtown business district has received support anew from two long-time Palm Springs business leaders, Violet and Gail Thompson.

Currently under construction at the 100 block corner of East Palm Canyon Drive is their two - story steel and concrete block building, to be known as the "Gayle Building." It gets its name from the highly successful photographic, blue printing and photostat studio the Thompsons founded here nearly 15 years ago.

DESIGNED BY John Moyer, A.I.B.D., and being built by the Press Construction Co., the building is scheduled for completion in October. It will consist of six stores, two offices and a deluxe apartment. Altogether there will be a total of 5,500 square feet of floor area. Cost of construction has been placed at $73,000.

Of modern design, the building will be completely refrigerated air conditioned and will be wired for TV, telephone jacks and piped-in music. Ample parking will be available to the rear and at the side of the building.

ALTHOUGH the laying of the foundation has just been started, much of the space has already been leased. Two upstairs offices and the apartment will be headquarters for the Palm Springs Golf Association and its secretary, Ida Keeney, who will also conduct her stenographic service from there.

Gail Thompson will do only a limited amount of photography at his new business address in October. He will confine himself to special assignments and architectural photography. His blue printing and photostat service will continue on a full-time basis.

This isn't Gail's first venture as office building landlord. In 1947 he purchased the building formerly located on the site now occupied by the Bank of America. He then had it moved in two sections to a site adjoining the Farmer's Market. The building now houses the stationery and office equipment companies owned and operated by his brother, Claude.

Blythe Airport Lease Executed

A lease agreement for Blythe Airport property to Blythe Aircraft Company, was approved by the Board of Supervisors this week and its execution authorized. Robert L. Metcalf and Aubrey M. Seale are partners in the company.

COLLEGE

we're not sure exactly what we're going to do next."

SINCE CONDEMNATION is generally regarded as something of a last resort, McCall said the board will presumably go on to the other three sites recommended by the state.

McCall indicated that failure to negotiate for Ryan's property was disappointing but not defeating.

Under proper site acquisition procedures, the board will choose and negotiate for "the best site obtainable" of the four recommended.

THE NEXT STEP requires the board to submit its selection to the state for approval. The stamp of state approval enables the board to go ahead and purchase the property and launch construction of school buildings.

By marking the various sites as "acceptable," the state agency tacitly but unofficially approves them as college sites.

Final in Sermon Series to Be Given

The third in a series of three sermons dealing with the "Faithful Sayings of the Apostle Paul"—this one titled "Salvation With Eternal Glory"—will be delivered at 9:30 a.m., Sunday, by Dr. James H. Blackstone, Jr., in the Community Church of Palm Springs.

The church emphasized that it is no longer holding 11 a.m. worship services and will not resume the later service until sometime in September.

THE SUNDAY service will mark the final sermon of the summer for Dr. Blackstone. On Tuesday, the Community Church pastor will leave with his family for the Northwest on Tuesday and plans to spend most of the month of August in Vancouver, B. C. During Dr. Blackstone's absence the 9:30 a.m. service will be conducted by assistant pastor Rev. Edwin P. Rogers.

SUNDAY SCHOOL will be held at 9:30 a.m., Sunday, in the church with the Young Adult Bible Class meeting at 8:30 a.m. at 257 Cahulla Road with Roy Davis instructing. High school young people also meet for a short Bible discussion at 9 a.m., Sunday.

Evening service Sunday will be a short song session in the Community Church sanctuary with the group then adjourning to St. Pauls Episcopal Church for a special dramatic presentation by a group of Occidental College students.

Sermon Topic Is Announced At New City

Preceptor Jean Hilst will deliver the sermon "Gratitude and Success Are Identical" at the Sunday morning services of the New City of Mentalphysics.

The services, which will be directed by Dr. Edwin J. Dingle, founder of the new church, will be presented in the sanctuary at the new City of Mentalphysics, located on the Twentynine Palms Highway midway between Yucca Valley and Joshua Tree.

Rev. Reuning to Devote Full Time to Congregation Here

Next week Our Saviour's Lutheran Church of Palm Springs can claim the fulltime services of its pastor, Rev. Walter H. Reuning. For the past three years the congregation has been sharing its minister with Immanuel Lutheran Church of Twentynine Palms.

This improvement came about when Immanuel Church found it possible to call its own resident pastor, and Rev. Elroy M. Shoppa of Vernon, Texas, accepted the call. He recently graduated from Concordia Seminary, Springfield, Ill.

ON JULY 12, at 4 p.m., he will be ordained into the ministry of the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod, and be formally installed as pastor of Immanuel at a service at the Twentynine Palms church. This will be the last service in which Pastor Reuning of Palm Springs will officiate.

Guest speaker will be Rev. C. C. Schramm of Alhambra, first vice president of the Southern California District of the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod.

PERFORMING THE act of ordination will be Rev. A. H. Herkamp of Corona, circuit visitor for the desert area.

According to Rev. Reuning, it is not usual procedure in the Lutheran Church to have one pastor serve more than one congregation.

Summer Mass Schedule Set

New schedule of masses during the summer months at Our Lady of Solitude Catholic Church has been announced by Father William G. Goodrow.

The July and August schedule for Sunday is 6:15, 8:30 and 12 noon.

Refrigerated cooling has been installed in the church, with a constant 78 degree temperature now being maintained.

Communication Outlet Installed At Whitewater

Commissioning of a new, automatic air-ground communications outlet at Whitewater this week added another link to the communications net around the Los Angeles Air Route Traffic Control Center.

Federal Aviation Agency officials in Los Angeles said the new peripheral communications system at Whitewater is the latest extension of a traffic control center established June 26.

THE FAA SAID the new station will make it possible for the air traffic controller at Los Angeles to talk directly to pilots flying within a 150-mile radius of Whitewater.

This officials said, "cuts down on critical communication lags and thus increases the capacity of the airways and brings about a more orderly flow of traffic into terminal areas.

PERIPHERAL communications, it was explained, are used for high altitude control of jet operations and all aircraft that operate below 24,000 feet.

The Whitewater outlet, one of 249 such stations, is unmanned. It is equipped with automatic devices triggered by a "push-button" system operated by a control center man in Los Angeles.

SCHOOL TAX

evaluation figure. Evaluation was rated at $104 million by the county auditor.

WHICH MEANT, Twist pointed out, that the school district could secure only about $27,700 for its operation even if the tax rate went to the legally maximum limit of $1.65 per $100 of assessed evaluation.

"Do you mean that the legal maximum (for taxes) will not provide enough money to give us what we need," Ball queried.

"That depends on what kind of education you want," Twist answered. "If you want larger classes and poorer quality education, you can get by."

THE ONLY BRIGHT spot in Twist's budgetary report, he noted, was the fact that the Palm Springs school district tax rate is "still the lowest" of the state's 97 unified school districts.

"Our low tax rates of the past five years were obviously based on false economy," interposed Board President B. H. Poliak. "It is going to cost us a lot more to get out of the hole now."

Last minute cuts in the badly perforated budget resulted in the elimination of such "priority" items as a long-planned instructional music program, counselors for elementary schools, $100,000 from capital outlay funds primarily intended for maintenance projects, a full-time head counselor for the junior high school

EARL WILSON:

Steve Allen and All the Cats

NEW YORK — Steve Allen has given up an apartment on Park Avenue for a house in the San Fernando Valley, and we're sorry to see him go — which is more than we can say about some people who've gone to Hollywood.

With Steve, it isn't a matter of going to Hollywood for money. He already has the money.

Steve wants to be with his three sons, Stephen, Brian and David, in their teen-age years. They are attending Los Angeles schools. On many a Sunday night, after his TV show in New York, Steve would whip out to Idlewild or La Guardia and get a plane so he could fly to L.A. to see them for a day or two — but that wasn't enough.

So Steve chose to move to California — and not just himself, either.

Steve's whole company of around 40 to 50 people, and their families, are moving with him.

Even Lennie Stern, his head writer and comedy director, and the five other writers who manufacture Steve's funnies, are moving to Hollywood, lock, stock and gag files.

"I'll be coming back four or five times a year, at least, to do some shows here," Steve said the night before he departed for California.

Steve and his wife, Jayne Meadows, have a house near Encino — with Gale Storm and Shirley MacLaine as neighbors.

Living in the neighborhood also are several top jazz musicians with whom Steve's friendly. They include Gus Bivona, the clarinetist, and Terry Gibbs, the guitarist.

In the period between the time Steve bought the house and got furniture into it, he used the comparatively empty establishment to hold jam sessions when he happened to be in California.

It made an ideal jazz emporium, of course, and Steve asked himself a couple of times:

"I wonder what this house will look like when I get furniture into it?"

Steve's losing the regular services of comedian Tom Poston, Maestro Skitch Henderson and announcer Gene Rayburn — the only members of his company who decided to stay on in New York — but now he will probably be able to use his mother, Belle Montrose, once of vaudeville, as an occasional guest performer.

Tom Poston will be persuaded to make occasional 10-day trips to California to do two of Steve's shows which, starting in the fall, will be on Monday night instead of Sunday.

"But I'm not a California guy, I'm a New York guy," Tom has said.

Steve, however, is a California guy. He was a well-known Los Angeles disc jockey before he came to New York to go seriously into television.

It was three years ago — June 24, 1956 — that Steve did his first Sunday night show for NBC. . . . he was only 34 when he was projected into that "Battle of Sullivan Day" against Ed Sullivan.

. . . a battle which became less of a duel with "Maverick" coming in and frequently licking both of them.

He was possibly a little uncertain then but he isn't now.

He's made Louis Nye and Don Knotts household names — they'll be with him out there, too, along with Dayton Allen and Gabe Dell — and he may have even added something to the fame of his wife Jayne who will be house-mother now to Steve's three sons by his first marriage, as well as to her own son, William Christopher.

Audrey Meadows, Jayne's sister, is taking over the Allen Park Avenue apartment.

In it, visitors will see a chair which Audrey swiped from Toots Shor's on Toots' closing night.

Gig Young. It never fails: whenever they want a top teevee-teef off they pop for a large payoff — for a movie name.

John Forsythe, star of the Bachelor Father series, guested in the pilot film of Gisele MacKenzie's new musical show, now making the rounds of the sponsors. And that's why Gisele is working in a Bachelor Father seg, "The Case Against Gisele."

JERRY LEWIS HAS ordered drastic changes in the formats of his four-to-six spots for this fall and winter. Instead of the "loose, vaudeville - type" shows you saw last season (and didn't like, according to the ratings!) Jerry's new efforts will each have a "basic idea." One will be the musical version of a Broadway farce, another will be an original musical, and another will be a who starring comedians — ONLY comedians, including Jerry himself.

Fred Astaire was plugging his biography, "Steps in Time," when he guested on that Dave Garroway show. That's why nothing was said about the way Garroway ripped a new Astaire record apart on a previous Mike Box Jury show — although Fred was furious at the time!

I CAN'T UNDERSTAND some stars. A similar incident occurred on What's My Line a few years back. Lillian Roth appeared on it and shook hands sweetly with the columnist panel member who had only a few months previously printed some stuff about Lillian that started the singer on a sobbing session that wouldn't stop!

He proved his musical worth in "Gigi," a nine - Oscar-winner, and that's why Louis Jordan, heretofore strictly a dramatic thespian, is up for a quartet of NBC spots.

Bing Crosby loves Westerns. His favorite TV shows are Maverick and Rawhide. All of which has nothing to do with the fact that Der Bingle and his brother Larry have signed a lease on 15 acres of the San Fernando Valley where newcomers to the Western field will learn how to ride the range and not look strange.

STAN DELAPLANE'S Postcard

As probably everybody knows, this is National Hot Dog Month. The way everybody knows it is because the hot dog people have a raft of press agents. The hot dog press agents elect Hot Dog Queens. They send slathers of handouts to the newspapers. Of hot dog press agents was Mr.

WELL, HARKING back to yesterday as we say: The greatest of hot dog press agents was Mr. Irving Hoffman, the Beau Brummel of Broadway.

Mr. Hoffman sang the praises of that great frankfurter, the Coney Island red hot.

His professional stationery bore the exciting inscription: "When a man hits a dog, that's news."

WHEN QUEEN Elizabeth's papa was King, he visited the U.S. And Mr. Hoffman engineered a thing where President Roosevelt served the King a hot dog.

My word! This went around the world in a way you could hardly believe.

"KING EATS HOT DOG WITH FDR."

That was one headline I remember. Nearly all the journals carried this gastronomic news on Page One. It proved the King was a regular person—only without the advantages of having hot dogs at Buckingham Palace.

BUT WHEN YOU gave him a hot dog, he was just like everybody else.

Mr. Roosevelt not only gave the King a hot dog. He made an announcement to the press that "it was a genuine Coney Island red hot."

This assured him the New York vote.

Irving Hoffman, I think, went to Heaven.

THE WORD OF the King and the hot dog went into all the faraway places. (For editors as a savvy bunch. They realize when a King bites a dog, it's good for circulation.)

Down in Trinidad, a Calypso singer named Lord Invader immediately wrote a calypso about "The King take hot dog in his hand."

"And he face hot dog, mahn to mahn."

ANYWAY THIS is no time to carp. This is Hot Dog Month and the mimeographed hot dog news is hot on the desk.

A good deal of it is printed, too. Not for literary excellence. I think most of us have a sneaking suspicion that the hot dog is somehow tied up with the flag and God Bless America. And baseball could not be played without it.

QUOTES FROM THE NEWS —

HAMMOND, Ind. — Russian First Deputy Premier Frol Kozlov, on the dimensions of the American airloin steak:

"I know you are a hospitable people, but I have one request. Could you please reduce the size of the beefsteaks? The helpings are too big."

... I represent the dark side of the bright business picture, Mr. Truffle! ...

THE OTHER DAY I whammed out some comments on Tom Holland and his second retirement. It wasn't until I had tongued the envelope flap and sent the piece on its way to Mr. Don Klotzbeucher for his tender handling that I remembered I hadn't said anything about one of Tom's top achievements here.

He was always a busy man in civic affairs but his biggest efforts came in connection with War Bond drives.

HE WAS BOND chairman for Palm Springs. Whenever a drive was slated, he would sneer at the quota for the Village.

"Not near enough," he'd say and then exceed it every time.

Twice he doubled the quota and once he tripled it.

He was the county's War Bond champion.

As one protesting taxpayer in a nearby city remarked: "A really odd thing is that this modern art is unpopular, even among the artists themselves, yet it always seems to enjoy the top spots. In fact it is rapidly getting to the point where really top-notch artists will no longer even submit their works to most of the local exhibits. Rembrandt, himself, if he were alive today, would be barred from the "big" art shows."

Since Palm Springs is the home of so many well known Western and Desert painters and has become one of the most popular art colonies and exhibit centers for artistic landscapes, portraits and other meanful and realistic though modern types of artistic paintings, the tendency towards surrealism in the larger shows and galleries is indirectly beneficial to local shows and exhibits.

Each year the increasing number of artists arriving here, and the growing attendance and volume of purchases at the local galleries and private studios, demonstrate that works descriptive of the desert, its mountains and colorfully scenic panoramas have a lasting and universal appeal to both viewers and purchasers of art from all points of the compass. Even modern art here has that realistic background.

Whether the exhibit selectors include any of the numerous beautiful local oils for desert scenes or not, that part of the public which admires this type of enduring art is becoming increasingly aware of the fine selection to be found in the desert region.

Palm Springs is fast carving out its own popular and creditable niche in the Art World.

WASHINGTON, D.C. (UP) — In its term which ended last month the Supreme Court handed down two decisions (Greene and Frank) which irked conservatives without giving any particular satisfaction to the liberals.

Greene was an industrial vice president whose company held some Defense Department contracts. The Federal Government denied this man access to classified information on grounds that his security was risky. In its last session of the term, the Supreme Court ruled against the Government's right to take such action without allowing the accused to face his accusers.

ALTHOUGH CONFRONTATION sounds like a simple and inalienable right for any individual in trouble, such is not by any means the whole story. A man who is denied security clearance is "accused" only in a vague although hurtful sense, but not in any criminal meaning. Besides, the individual is not the only one with rights. The American national and people deserve consideration. The Supreme Court ruled earlier this year in the Barenblatt decision that:

"In the last analysis this (Congressional investigative) power rests on the right of self-preservation, 'the ultimate value in any society.'"

THUS MANY LAWYERS on the Judiciary committee and the Greene decision. "It has made a shambles of our industrial security system," said Senator Keating of New York, a moderate Republican. "All of our nation's vital defense facilities are now at the mercy of Communist sabotage, espionage and subversion," said Senator Butler of Maryland, an Old Guard Republican.

Even Joseph Rauh, an ultra-liberal who was testifying for the Democrats for Democratic Action, urged the Senate to pass another industrial security bill this session—but to provide some how for confrontation.

THE DECISION known as Frank vs. Maryland is another which has been a little unsatisfactory to the opposing camps of liberals and conservatives. A Baltimore health inspector named Gentry was refused entry to a house which he suspected was rat-infested. The owner was arrested and fined $20.

There is no issue of the mid-night knock or of the police force's kicking down the door. In reading the majority opinion Justice Frankfurter cited an older case:

"... the 'unreasonable searches and seizures' condemned in the Fourth Amendment are almost always made for the purpose of compelling a man to give evidence against himself, which in criminal cases is condemned in the Fifth Amendment."

JUSTICE FRANKFURTER goes on to say that there are two "rights" for the individual involved here. One is the plain right of privacy, the other of self-defense—but Mr. Frankfurter is not much impressed with the argument that either of these rights was abused. The health inspector came more than once, at convenient times of day, and exerted no force against the home owner. Besides, as in the Greene case, the community also had some rights, and Jus-

RYAN, HOLDEN SET KENYA CLUB TRIP

Ollman Ray Ryan, left, and Actor Bill Holden fly to New York from Los Angeles on July 17 to attend a Club 21 party honoring the Duke of Manchester, now a permanent resident of East Africa.

MOUNT KENYA Safari Club was converted from the fabled 60-acre Mawingo Hotel, which cost Ryan, Holden and their partner in the venture, Swiss Industrialist Carl Hirschmann, more than $1,000,000 in cash to purchase. Located 140 miles north of Nairobi, the club boasts the rare distinction of dispensing country club amenities in the heart of Kenya's spectacular concentration of wild game and wildlife.

Charter members include such illustrious personages as Sir Winston Churchill, Clark Gable, Walt Disney, John Wayne, William Randolph Hearst, Jr., Lily Pons, Senator Lyndon Johnson, Senator Ev-

Junior Police 'Comeback' Wins Sears Title, 9-3

Jordan Wins Easily Over Oregon Youth

Aragon Next For Welter King; Eyes Robinson Bout

PORTLAND, Ore. (UP)—Bright things were ahead today for world welterweight champion Don Jordan.

The 25-year-old title holder, who was on the hamburger circuit a year ago, is in line for some rich purses after giving 19-year-old Denny Meyer a lesson in 15 rounds and spoiling at least this part of Oregon's centennial.

MANAGER DON NESSETH said that the next match for the champ would be against Art (Golden Boy) Aragon in Los Angeles—and that should draw a big house. And Teleprompter has offered us $200,000 to meet Sugar Ray Robinson, said Nesseth.

Jordan indicated he was anxious to meet any man where he could make good money. "Beating Meyer put me in a good position," said the champion. "I'll take on anybody in my class—and maybe some other classes, too."

FOR WHIPPING the Portland hero, Jordan collected $70,000 in cash.

It was an easy victory. Jordan left the ring without a scar on him after taking a unanimous decision. Judge Andy Crabtree had 147-144; referee Eddie Volk, 147-143. Judge Ralph Gruman had it closer, 144-143 but United Press International had it 148-142.

Rams to Open Drills

LOS ANGELES (UP)—Two veterans and 37 rookies will report to the Los Angeles Rams training camp at Redlands Thursday to begin work for the 1959 pro football season, general manager Pete Rozelle announced today.

VILLAGE BOWMEN JOIN STATE IN 10-DAY DEER HUNT

SACRAMENTO (UP)—California's 25,000 bow and arrow hunters started the first of two 10-day archery hunting seasons for deer today.

Only a month ago the season was eliminated by the state Fish and Game Commission. It later was restored by the Legislature after the state's archers—including Palm Springs' active group of bowmen—had protested the commission's action.

The archers' kill won't be noticeable among the million or more deer in the state. Last year they bagged 251 bucks.

The rifle season for the 21 county early season opens July 25—the earliest regular deer season in the nation. It ends Sept. 13. The inland season opens Sept. 26 and closes Nov. 1. The second archery season will be Sept. 12-21.

Blonde Eyes Channel 'Hex'

By OSCAR FRALEY
NEW YORK (UP)—Marathon swimmer Greta Anderson, a luscious blonde from Long Beach, Calif., said today she hopes to put the double cross on a hex by double crossing the English Channel.

Ever since the days of Gertrude Ederle, first woman to conquer the frigid, treacherous waters of the French-English bathtub, long distance swimming has been tabbed as a sure route to obscurity.

IT'S A FAR PIECE to fame and splashing sprinters such as Esther Williams, Johnny Weissmuller and Buster Crabbe did a quick crawl into the Hollywood swim.

Greta, the naturalized cutie from Copenhagen, figures she can find fame and fortune right in the water and without benefit of cameras by becoming the first person to swim the English Channel both ways non-stop.

LAST SUMMER SHE became the first person to swim both ways across the Catalina Channel which, like the English Channel, is about 21 miles wide. The difference is that the tides are worse and the water is much more frigid in the English Channel.

"I've figured out how to beat the cold," she smiles. "I'll do the latter stages of my training in my native Copenhagen, and after the water there the English Channel will seem like a warm bath."

Majors Appoint Committee for 3rd 'Big League'

CHICAGO (UP)—Major league baseball moved today to help supporters of a third major league get their dream off the ground.

A seven-man committee composed of Commissioner Ford Frick, President Warren Giles of the National League, President Joe Cronin of the American League, and club owners Tom Yawkey, Boston; Arnold Johnson, Kansas City; Bob Carpenter, Philadelphia; and Lou Perini, Milwaukee was named to meet with third league partisans and aid their future planning.

Frick named the committee at a special meeting held by the major leagues to consider aid to the minor leagues and also to vote for a second time on authorizing inter-league trades without waivers during the three-week period, Nov. 21 to Dec. 15, this year.

Presumably the third league committee will be at the disposal of the third league group, headed by William Shea of New York, for advice and counsel at any time in the future.

Both the American and National League held to their previous positions favoring free inter-league trading this winter and they reaffirmed their previous vote to make such deals possible.

SAD SAM, MAYS AID GIANT'S WIN

CINCINNATI (UP)—Manager Bill Rigney may have solved the one big problem that has made many experts count the San Francisco Giants out as the National League flag choice.

The experts say you have to have top flight relief pitching, which they claim the first place Giants don't have.

BUT SAD SAM Jones, who has been superb since that much publicized one-hitter in Los Angeles, may be just what the sages say is essential.

Teitelbaum Double Tops 'Big Inning'

Kettmann Presents Sears Trophy to Junior Police

Palm Springs Junior Police Little League team, trailing 3-1 after four innings of play, exploded with eight runs in the first half of the fifth inning to defeat the Palm Springs Water Company and win the Sears Trophy last night.

The big inning of the game, played in the Polo Grounds here, featured a bases loaded double by Robert Teitelbaum which brought three of the eight runs across.

THE WATER COMPANY team, one down in the best two out of three series, played flawlessly for the first four frames. They scored first, a run in the second inning, with the Junior Police matching it in the third.

In the last of the fourth, the Water Company players pushed two runs across to take a 3-1 lead.

The advantage was short lived, for the Junior Police barrage followed as soon as they put out the Water Company fire and got their hands on their bats.

POLICE CHIEF Gus Kettmann presented the Sears Trophy to Walt Colglazier, manager of the Junior Police team, following the game.

Little League President "Woody" Woods also presented awards including two to managers Colglazier and Bruno DiGrandi, leader of the Water Company nine.

Palmer Gets 1-Stroke Lead In Western

'Super' 66 Puts Palmer Ahead of Souchak, Campbell

PITTSBURGH (UP)—Arnold Palmer, who played "super golf" in the second round, nursed a one-stroke lead today as the Western Open golf tournament moved into the third round at the Pittsburgh Field Club.

Palmer, a sentimental favorite from nearby Latrobe and Ligonier, Pa., registered his second sub-par round Friday for a 67-66—133 to lead former Duke University football star Mike Souchak, who turned in his second 67 for 134.

YOUNG JOE CAMPBELL, of Knoxville, Tenn., the first day leader, saw his lead go by the boards as his putter went con. Campbell set a course record with a 65 in Thursday's first round, but carded a 71 Friday for 136 to tie for fourth place with George Bayer, of Lemont, Ill., Bayer registered a 69-67 for his 136.

Campbell hit 16 greens but ran into trouble on the back nine.

PETE COOPER, a 44-year-old former potato farmer from Lakeland, Fla., checked in with a 66 to spring into contention with a 137, bunching him with Fred Hawkins, El Paso, Tex., and Jack Fleck, of Los Angeles, former National Open champ. Hawkins had a 69 and Fleck 67.

Tied at 138 were Bert Weaver, Beaumont, Tex., Ted Kroil, Sarasota, Fla., and Doug Ford, Paradise, Fla.

Doug Sanders, defending champ from Miami Beach, stayed under par with a 70-69-139.
